Paul Arpin Van Lines Awards Top Performing Agents in 2004

Recognizing the continued commitment to quality service and achievement, Paul Arpin Van Lines acknowledged over thirty top producing agents at the 2004 annual convention held at the Four Seasons Resort, in Palm Beach, Fl. In October. A record number of attendees enjoyed the beautiful weather, surroundings and incredible service of the Four Seasons Staff.

There were many reasons to celebrate, as Arpin and Arpin Agents have experienced record growth since their last convention in Tucson, Arizona in October 2003. Over 30 agents were recognized for continuous faithful service, outstanding sales and quality service achievements. In addition, 49 agents received hauling bonuses from a pool of over $100,000.00.

David Arpin, President, Paul Arpin Van Lines, Inc., praised the agency family for their hard work and dedication, as well as their commitments to the quality initiatives introduced this year.

"I love having the opportunity to personally thank our agency family for their support and to have some fun together," said Arpin. "The success we have seen this year is unprecedented and has come as a result of everyone working toward a common goal. We believe the initiatives from the Van Line in sharing of revenues, bonus programs, and stock ownership, are going to fuel this momentum indefinitely. "

Richard Greenberg, Charles Wood & Son Moving, Inc., Melville, New York, has been an agent with Paul Arpin Van Lines for over 20 years. Recently appointed to the Agent Advisory Board, Greenberg stated after the convention, "The agents really feel a partnership with the Van Line. We now have an opportunity to be shareholders. We recognize that the more active we are with the Van Line, the larger share of the revenues that we retain; We're rewarded for providing quality work, and the Van Line truly listens to our ideas and follows through on our suggestions," added Greenberg.

Awards given out included categories of Sales Excellence, Quality Agent, and the culmination of the Awards, the 2004 Arpin Agent of the Year. Details of all awards received and the recipients can be located on the Arpin web site, www.arpin.com. As everyone headed back home and back to work, discussion turned to eager anticipation of the Arpin convention for 2005, where the venue is the Ritz Carlton in New Orleans, Louisiana.
