Paul Arpin Van Lines, Inc., Announces Winners of Agents of the Month for Second Quarter, 2005

East Greenwich, RI Paul Arpin Van Lines recently announced the recognition of the following Arpin Agents of the Month for 2005. For June, the Arpin Agent of the Month was Hopkins and Sons, Inc., of New Castle, Delaware. July's Arpin Agent of the Month was Capitol Moving and Storage, located in Lakewood, Washington. The Arpin Agent for the month for August was Stewart Moving and Storage, based in Richmond, Virginia.

"There is always an interest in the winner of the Arpin Agent of the Month Award, as it is a direct channel into the competition for the Paul Arpin Van Lines' Inc., Agent of the Year Award, which we present annually at our Convention," said David Arpin, President, Paul Arpin Van Lines, Inc. "Only the Agents with over all best-practices make it into this sought-after category, and winning this award in the summer can be especially challenging, as the level of business increases in so many of our markets," added Arpin.

Criteria for determining the recipient of the Agent of the Month Award is based on measurement in several areas. All potential recipients in the Paul Arpin Agency family must have increased business with the van lines over the previous 12 months. In addition, all recipients and potential recipients are measured in the following Stringent Quality metrics according to Paul Arpin Van Lines Quality Assurance standards which include but are not limited to:

- Low customer damage claims
- Maintaining outstanding customer service scores
- Maintaining a strong financial position with Paul Arpin Van Lines
- Maintaining a strong safety record

"Choosing the Arpin Agent of the Month is becoming decidedly more difficult, as we continue to sign new Agents and grow our agency family," said David Henderson, Vice President, Agency Development, Paul Arpin Van Lines, Inc. "As a whole, our agents' quality scores have continued to increase. Those who have been selected as the recipients for the Arpin Agent of the Month Award are the epitome of providing top services in their community," added Henderson.
