ARPIN VAN LINES FORMS INTERLINE AGREEMENT WITH GREAT CANADIAN VAN LINES

New Alliance Greatly Expands the Serviceable Areas of Both Companies

EAST GREENWICH, R.I. (July 16, 2007) – Arpin Van Lines, Inc., headquartered in East Greenwich, Rhode Island, USA, announces it has formed an interline agreement with Great Canadian Van Lines, Ltd., based in Delta, British Columbia, Canada. The new alliance is expected to improve the delivery of customer's household goods by increasing the service range and reducing costs for both companies.

"This is a total win-win situation for both Arpin Van Lines and Great Canadian Van Lines," said Tom Stephens, Vice President of Arpin Van Lines. "Through this alliance, both companies will expand their markets and networks across the Canadian/US border with improved services and coverage areas for all of our relocation customers."

"This new alliance with Arpin will extend our serviceable area to the entire United States, and will ultimately provide our agents and customers with a one-stop shopping experience", said Mark Valliant, President of Great Canadian Van Lines. "We are extremely excited about the prospects and opportunities this affiliation offers and we look forward to a long relationship with Arpin."

The new alliance greatly improves operational flexibility for both Arpin Van Lines and Great Canadian Van Lines, allowing the two carriers to share and utilize each other's shipping lanes. Arpin gains the use of Great Canadian's regularly scheduled service lanes across Canada, making it more efficient and cost effective for its' customers. Great Canadian can now utilize Arpin's specialized cross-border system to service all areas in the United States.

The new interline alliance will also allow smaller cross-border shipments to gateway through larger hub centers in Vancouver and Toronto, thereby improving overall efficiencies and reducing in-transit times for relocating customers of both Arpin Van Lines and Great Canadian Van Lines.
